

Cycle2max.com

More than just another website.

An advertisement on cycle2max.com is an investment in one of the most dynamic and innovative cycling websites in Australia. Since its inception Cycle2max has grown rapidly to become a prominent fixture for thousands of cycling enthusiasts nationwide who desire to challenge themselves in their beloved sport.

A website for all cycling enthusiasts

Cycle2max is a site used by a vast array of cyclists, clubs and organisations because of its highly interactive tools which enable users to monitor their cycling progress and challenge themselves in a unique and captivating way.

Not only is the site a superb tool for the novice recreational cyclist but it has also been endorsed at the highest level by the Australian Sports Commission and is used as their web site of choice for their NTID (National Talent Identification) program.

What is Cycle2max?

Cycle2max was the first cycling website in the World to develop an online hill climb time trial ranking system where cyclists can participate by posting their times and local climbs in their area.

Since its birth in 2002 the site has had staggering success with more than 20 thousand climb times entered from all corners of the globe.

An ever evolving work in progress, the site has seen numerous other features introduced aimed at bringing the cycling community together and enhancing each individual cyclist's experience.
